

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

RICHMOND friends of bride and groom will be interested to know of the wedding in Portsmouth yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock of Miss Virginia Thornton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Thornton, of Portsmouth, to Dr. W. Armistead Gills, of Richmond, the Rev. George H. Spooner officiating.

The bride wore a traveling costume of navy blue French broadcloth, a flumed hat, and carried lilacs of the valley. Dr. Robert Bosher, of this city, as best man, was the only attendant.

Dr. and Mrs. Gills left for New York and Connecticut, where several entertainments have been arranged in their honor by friends of the groom.

Miss Thornton was formerly a trained nurse at Memorial Hospital, and has a large circle of acquaintances here, where she is very popular. Dr. Gills is identified with social and professional life in Richmond, where he has been located for some years. During his connection with the United States Army he was a resident at the government hospital in Washington. On his return from his wedding trip he and his bride will be at 301 East Franklin Street.

Skipwith—King.
The wedding of Miss Susie Christian King to Mr. George Nicholas Skipwith will be celebrated at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the home of the bride's cousins, the Rev. and Mrs. Frank A. Ridout, of Ginter Park. The Rev. Dr. R. Mason, of Grace Episcopal Church, and Mr. Ridout, of Ginter Park Church, will officiate.

Miss Anne Randolph King, the bride's sister, will be maid of honor, and Mr. Robert Skipwith King, the groom's brother, will be best man. The bride and groom will visit New York and spend some time at South East, Powhatan county, before taking up their permanent residence at No. 8 South Fourth Street.

Pendleton—Dawson.
Of unusual interest will be the wedding this evening in Theological Seminary Chapel, near Alexandria, of Miss Maria M. Dawson, daughter of the late Nicholas Dawson, of Loudoun county, and great granddaughter of the late George Mason, of Gunston Hall, to the Rev. William Gibson Pendleton, of Norfolk, member of the historic Virginia family. The Rev. Dr. J. B. Samuel, of Walling, will officiate.

Miss Elizabeth Worthington, of Washington, will be maid of honor, and Mr. John Warner, of New York, best man. A reception will be given at Cameron, the home of the bride, near Alexandria. Mr. and Mrs. Pendleton will have their home in Norfolk after a Northern tour.

Jordan—Atkins.
At 5 P. M. yesterday, in Monumental Episcopal Church, the wedding of Miss Louise Atkins, daughter of the late Judge Thomas Stanley Atkins and Mrs. Ellen Prior Atkins, to Dr. Fletcher Jordan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Montford Jordan, of Murfreesboro, Tenn., was celebrated by the pastor, the Rev. James W. Morris, D. D.

The church was decorated with palms and candles. The vested choir led the advance to the altar, singing the bridal chorus from "Lullaby." Miss Henry S. Hotchkiss, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Mr. E. Leland Taylor, of the University of Virginia, the groom's cousin, was best man.

Other members of the bridal party were Messrs. Armstrong M. Dobie and R. Marshall Prince, University of Virginia; Lloyd R. Freeman, of Norfolk; Henry S. Hotchkiss, of Richmond; Dr. Hugh N. Page and Dr. Burnley Lankford, of Norfolk; Messrs. Charles C. Brent, of Lexington, Ky., and Charles W. Hopkins, of Montgomery, Ala.

The bride entered with her uncle, Major John Newton Prior, of North Carolina, who gave her in marriage. She was gown in white duchesse satin, her veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a white prayerbook, marked with sprays of lily of the valley. The dame of honor was very handsome in lace and cloth of gold over yellow chiffon and silk. Her flowers were a long-stemmed cluster of yellow chrysanthemum.

The bride party was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hotchkiss at the Jefferson Hotel after the ceremony. Dr. and Mrs. Jordan, after November 1st, will have their home at 525 North Street, Greenville, S. C.

Engagement Announced.
Miss Nellie Lee Waller, of "Clifton," Widewater, Va., and Mr. William Leeds Wright, of Richmond. The wedding will take place at Clifton Chapel early in November.

Her Fifth Birthday.
Little Miss Elizabeth Hawes Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Robertson, celebrated her fifth birthday on September 28th in a delightful way for many of her juvenile friends.

Decorations in golden-rod, yellow dahlias and shaded candles proved most artistic. All sorts of amusements were provided, little Miss Elizabeth proving a charming hostess and receiving showers of gifts and good wishes. Her guests were Elizabeth Gwynneth, Allan Gwynneth, Virginia Donnan, Kinloch, Nelson, Katherine Minor, Robertson Capers, Andrew Briggs, Rose Caperton, Lena, Sarah and Mary Caperton, Sarah Powers, Margery Stringfellow, Anne Stringfellow, Margaret Pyle, Katherine Scott, Anne Kesslich, William Garlick, Cecil Garlick, Elizabeth James, Talbot Young, Allan Campbell and Katherine Robertson.

McFadden—Lewis.
Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas Lewis, of West View, Va., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ivory Soap is a bath soap; a toilet soap; a fine laundry soap. With it the Head of the House can keep his hands and face and body clean.

So can the Youngster, who will some day be the head of his own house.

As for the Wife and Mother, she finds it invaluable for preserving the beauty of her table-linen, her laces, curtains, cut glass and a hundred other articles in which she takes special pride.

Ivory Soap 99 1/100 Per Cent. Pure.

J.B. Mosby & Co.

Stupendous Sale of Rugs, Lace Curtains and Upholstered Goods

Third Floor.

We Offer Room Size Rugs at Substantial Cash Savings

These Rugs are the handiwork of the world's best makers. Their durability is unquestionable, and the patterns and coloring are those designed for the coming season. Almost every housekeeper prefers Rugs to carpets—because they are easier to keep clean and usually look nicer. Looks and comfort both suggest the buying of these room-size Rugs—and economy commands it.

$60.00 French Wilton Rugs, 9x12 ft. $40.50.
$15.00 Best Wilton Rugs, 9x12 ft. $10.50.
$40.00 Best Wilton Rugs, 8 ft. 3 in. by 10 ft. 6 in. $27.50.
$25.00 Best Wilton Rugs, 11 ft. 6 in. by 13 ft. 6 in. $16.75.
$40.00 Wilton Axminster Rugs, 9x12 ft. $27.50.
$30.00 Best Grade Axminster Rugs, 9x12 ft. $22.50.

We carry all sizes of Small Rugs and Hall Runners to match these Rugs. Every conceivable design, quality and color that you could wish for in Rugs.

Extraordinary Purchase of Lace Curtains 33 1/3% to 50% Less Than Regular Price

A fortunate purchase made by us of about 250 pairs of real hand-made Dutch Lace Curtains and a few more of the same quality and pattern. These goods were made to order for a large Western concern by Emden & Wormser, of New York City, the largest curtain importers in the world, and cancelled by them on account of retiring from this branch of the business. After considerable negotiations with the manufacturers, the entire stock was secured by us at one-third to one-half less the price made to the Western concern. This lot consists of about twelve new styles, suitable for bedroom, dining-room, library and parlor. They were made to sell as high as $5.00 per pair. Entire lot we shall put on sale Friday at about half the regular price. $2.50, $1.50 and $1.00 Lace Curtains; special per pair....

$1.50 Nottingham Curtains, Special 98c

A special value in Nottingham Curtains, 54 to 58 inches wide, 3 and 3 1/2 yards long. Twelve new and handsome designs to select from. Special sale to-day.

Full line of imported Cretonnes and Tickings, ranging in price, per yard, from 50c to 1.00 $3.00

$2 Nottingham Curtains at $1.25

All 3 1/2 yards long and 54 inches wide, made of strong Scotch net. Designs very latest. Special sale to-day.

All the new printed effects in Cretonnes, Tickings and Hungarian Cloth, floral and Oriental De-signs, per yard..... $3.00

Auxiliary to Meet.
A meeting of Lee Camp Auxiliary will be held in Lee Camp Hall this afternoon at 4 o'clock. All members are asked to be present.

Board Meet at Home.
The regular monthly meeting of the board of managers of the Richmond Board of Ladies was held at the home on Monday. A number of ladies were in attendance.

Invitations Issued.
Mrs. Magdalena Valentine has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Nellie Cleveland, to Mr. Gilbert Monroe Kidwell. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride's mother, No. 1200 North Twentieth Street, Wednesday evening, October 14th, at 6 o'clock.

Wedding of the Rev. James R. O'Reilly officiating.
The wedding of Miss Annie Eulalia Kerse to Mr. Peter Garratt Pleasants was celebrated in this city Tuesday, September 29th, at 2 o'clock, by the Rev. James R. O'Reilly officiating.

Wooters—Northern.
The wedding of Miss Louise Northern, formerly of Lexington, Va., and daughter of Mrs. Louise Northern, to Mr. P. C. Wooters, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Wooters, will take place at 9:15 o'clock this morning in the home of the bride, No. 211 1/2 East Broad Street, the Rev. W. R. Dorset, of Leigh Street Baptist Church, officiating.

Miss Bessie Northern, dressed in white and carrying pink carnations, will be maid of honor, and Mr. S. W. Wooters, brother of the groom, the best man.

The bride will wear a gown of London smoke cloth, gloves to match, a picture hat and have a bouquet of Bride roses. There will be no reception. Mr. and Mrs. Wooters will leave by the 10 o'clock train for a trip to Natural Bridge and Hot Springs. They will have their future home in Richmond.

Personal Mention.
Mrs. W. H. F. Lee, of Ravenswood, Va., who is visiting Mrs. Benjamin Nash on West Franklin Street, was a guest at Woman's Club Monday afternoon.

Mrs. John Letcher, of Norfolk, and Misses Mary J. and Annie Galt, of Williamsburg, Va., who attended the meeting of the board of managers of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities in Richmond yesterday, returned to their homes in the afternoon.

Miss Eula Lee Kendrick and Miss Duval, of Bristol, who are spending the month at No. 215 East Franklin Street, were guests of Mrs. R. T. Hunter at Woman's Club, Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Thomas Hoghead, of Staunton, came to the club with Mrs. Norton R. Savage. Mrs. Hoghead, the guest in Richmond of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Clotier.

Mrs. F. S. Lipscombe and daughter left yesterday for Philadelphia to visit Miss Lipscombe's sister, Mrs. R. Becker.

Miss Page Aylett Royall is the guest of Mrs. Charles Senn at Mrs. Senn's Virginia country home near Warren, Albemarle county.

Mrs. E. O. Lyne, of Orange, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Josephine Sizer, at 321 West Grace Street.

Miss Sue Carrington, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. John Harvie, on South Third Street, has returned to her home in Roanoke.

Miss Blanche Cadot will return to Richmond to-day for the winter.

Mrs. Harriet P. Lynch, of South Carolina, is in Richmond engaged in literary research. While here she is with Mrs. E. T. Robinson, and, as she spent the summer at Blue Ridge Springs, has a number of Richmond friends.

Mrs. B. C. Wherry and family have moved to 108 West Grace Street.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Taylor and Miss Elizabeth Taylor, of Ringgold, near Danville, are spending the week at Richmond Hotel.

Mrs. I. C. Bonham and Miss McCune, who spent the summer in North Carolina, are now with their sister, Mrs. George Gibson, at 302 West Franklin Street.

Mrs. N. L. Alcocke and daughter, Elizabeth, are visiting Mrs. Alcocke's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Lambert, at 510 Allison Street.

Smith—Grimsley.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CULEPEPER, Va., October 6.—A beautiful home marriage was celebrated to-day at the residence of the bride's parents, Miss Fannie Grimsley being wedded to Mr. Cabell Smith. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Judge D. A. and Mrs. Grimsley, and the groom is a young business man of New York. Rev. B. W. Winfree, of the Baptist Church here, performed the ceremony.

The presents were numerous. After a wedding breakfast, the bridal couple took the train for a tour of different States.

McGhee—Lumsden.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
GORDONSVILLE, Va., October 6.—Mr. Harry McGhee, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. McGhee, of near Gordonsville, and Miss Mary Lumsden, daughter of Mrs. R. H. Harris, were married at Orange Monday afternoon, Rev. Dr. J. W. Bledsoe officiating.

Stamper—Whitley.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, Va., October 6.—At the home of the Rev. Father Doherty, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church, a quiet marriage was celebrated last evening, when Miss Margaret E. Whitley became the bride of Mr. R. A. Stamper. At the conclusion of the ceremony the bride party was driven to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whitley, where an informal reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Stamper will reside in Norfolk.

Enoch—Hudson.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, Va., October 6.—A pretty marriage occurred last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Adams, on Euclid Avenue, when Miss Elsie Hudson became the bride of Mr. Carrington A. Enoch, of Fortress Monroe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. M. W. Ayres, of the College Hill Baptist Church. The couple was attended by Miss Annie Enoch, a sister of the groom, who was maid of honor, and Mr. W. M. Hudson, a brother of the bride, who was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Enoch have gone to Hampton, Va., to make their future home.

DAIRY INSTITUTES ARE NEW DEPARTURE

Carolina to Give Farmers Scientific Instruction in This Line.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., October 6.—Rev. Adiel J. Moncrief, now pastor of the First Baptist Church, Forsyth, Ga., has accepted a call to the pastorate of Tabernacle Baptist Church, this city, and will take up the work here about November 1st. He is a graduate of Mercer College, and during twelve years' ministry has served churches at Brunswick, LaGrange and Forsyth, Ga. He was for a while professor of philosophy and Bible in Cox College, Atlanta.

Rev. W. C. Tyree, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church here, is considering a call to the pastorate of the First Church, of Greenwood, S. C. He has been in Raleigh six years. Every effort is being put forth to retain him.

Dairy Institutes.
A new departure for the department of farmers' institutes under the auspices of the State Department of Agriculture, in the holding of special institutes to demonstrate dairying methods in various parts of the State. The first is billed for Henderson county, at Dana, October 26th to 30th, the instructors to be J. A. Coover, E. H. Rawl, dairy expert, United States Department of Agriculture, and Dr. Tait Butler, North Carolina State Veterinarian. Notice comes from the Interstate Commerce Commission that the North Carolina Corporation Commission has the argument in the suit of the North Carolina commission against the Norfolk and Western, Louisville and Nashville and Big Four Railroad companies, alleging excessive freight rates from Cincinnati and other points west to North Carolina points, as compared with rates to Virginia "gateway cities," will be heard in Washington, October 22d.

Masonic Fair.
The North Carolina Grand Lodge Masonic fair has opened here in the Grand Lodge Temple, just across the street, and there is every indication that a big success will be scored.

Republican nominee for Governor J. Elwood Cox is to speak in this city Friday night of this week. With him will come Hon. J. C. Sledge, one of the local Republican campaign managers are planning for a big rally.

The Raleigh bar and Wake Superior Court joined to-day in memorial exercises in honor of Hon. Fabius H. Busee, for many years a prominent lawyer of this city, who died while at Seattle, Wash., attending the session of the American Bar Association.

Democrats Rally in Old North State

Four Thousand Hear W. W. Kitchin Make Rousing Political Address at Apex.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., October 6.—Four thousand people participated in a great Democratic rally at Apex, this county, to-day, when Congressman W. W. Kitchin, candidate for Governor, was the principal speaker. There was a free barbecue served to all. Special train loads of people were there from Raleigh, Durham and Sanford, and the people of the whole countryside were out en masse.

Mr. Kitchin delivered a forcible Democratic rallying speech that evidently had good effect. The Democratic campaign managers say conditions have brightened very much the past week. It has been considered rather doubtful whether Democrats would win in Wake, but they are now sanguine of victory.

KITCHIN TO SPEAK.
Democratic Candidate Is Booked for Washington, N. C.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WASHINGTON, N. C., October 6.—Hon. W. W. Kitchin, of Roxboro, N. C., and Democratic candidate for Governor, will address the citizens of Washington on October 13th on the Democratic issues of the campaign. The members of the Bryan-Kitchin Club, together with the other citizens of Washington, are making preparations to give him a royal welcome when he comes to this city.

KERN IN CAROLINA.
Makes Address Before 500 Democrats at Salisbury.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SALISBURY, N. C., October 6.—John W. Kern, Democratic nominee for Vice-President, made a short speech at Salisbury to-day, in which he said he Attention! Attention!

Visitors to the State Fair are requested to make our store their headquarters while in the city. You are more than welcome—come and stay as long as you wish.

We are displaying the most carefully selected stock of stylish and "up-to-date" Footwear For Men, Women and Children ever shown in this city. The prices are right—and the quality matches the price. RIDING BOOTS—tan and black—for ladies and gentlemen.

These Cool October Days Call for a New Hat
We have them in an almost endless variety of styles, in Derbies, Silk, Opera and Soft Hats.
The Taro Hat.....$2.00
The Westover Hat.....$3.00
The "O. & B." Special.....$2.50
The Stetson Hat, $4.00 and $5.00
And the Celebrated Christy Hat of London in Derbies at $5.00.
Silk and Operas at $8.00.

DON'T FORGET
Every purchase of one dollar, and each dollar paid on account, gives you an opportunity to win the handsome Pony and Cart we are giving away ABSOLUTELY FREE.

TAYLOR & BROWN, 913 E. Main Street brought greetings from Indiana to the people of North Carolina.

He urged the 500 people, who heard him to study the issues of the day and wrench the government from the hands of Republicans and win it back to its rightful place. Mr. Kern was given a big ovation here. He was accompanied to Greensboro by L. H. Clement, president of the North Carolina Bar Association; Senator Lee S. Overman and other leading citizens.

CARRY WAR INTO VIRGINIA
Humane Society Moves to Stop Docking Horses' Tails.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 6.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the Washington Humane Society yesterday afternoon at the headquarters, the Warer Building, Ninth and F Streets, Northwest, it was decided that if the docking of horses' tails in Virginia were not stopped congressional action would be taken. If this committee is able to influence legislation to prevent owners in the District sending their stock across the Potomac.

It was announced that at the next meeting, November 2d, the subject of congressional action will probably be taken up.

New members were admitted as follows: T. V. Powderly, formerly head of the Knights of Labor; A. J. Sabath, Representative in Congress from Illinois; David A. Gorkick, Mrs. J. D. Coblentz, Mrs. Rowena Murdoch Gedding, Miss Elizabeth Shedd, Miss Isabel Martin and Mrs. Sarah K. McLean. Master Phillip E. McKenny was admitted to the children's branch.

REV. DR. DRYER SUSPENDED
Methodist Conference Finds Him Guilty of "Business Irregularity."

ROCHESTER, N. Y., October 6.—The Genesee Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in the matter of the charges preferred against the Rev. Dr. George H. Dryer, superintendent of the Central Methodist District by the Western Methodist Book Concern to-day found him guilty of "business irregularity constituting high imprudence and unministerial conduct." He

SICK HEADACHE
CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS. Positively cured by these Little Pills. They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating. A perfect remedy for Bile, Nervousness, Headache, Dizziness, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Coated Tongue, Pain in the Side, TORPID LIVER. They regulate the Bowels. Purely Vegetable.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, "BOOTS" BROWN.
colored, in the holding of special institutes to demonstrate dairying methods in various parts of the State. The first is billed for Henderson county, at Dana, October 26th to 30th, the instructors to be J. A. Coover, E. H. Rawl, dairy expert, United States Department of Agriculture, and Dr. Tait Butler, North Carolina State Veterinarian. Notice comes from the Interstate Commerce Commission that the North Carolina Corporation Commission has the argument in the suit of the North Carolina commission against the Norfolk and Western, Louisville and Nashville and Big Four Railroad companies, alleging excessive freight rates from Cincinnati and other points west to North Carolina points, as compared with rates to Virginia "gateway cities," will be heard in Washington, October 22d.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, "BOOTS" BROWN.
colored, in the holding of special institutes to demonstrate dairying methods in various parts of the State. The first is billed for Henderson county, at Dana, October 26th to 30th, the instructors to be J. A. Coover, E. H. Rawl, dairy expert, United States Department of Agriculture, and Dr. Tait Butler, North Carolina State Veterinarian. Notice comes from the Interstate Commerce Commission that the North Carolina Corporation Commission has the argument in the suit of the North Carolina commission against the Norfolk and Western, Louisville and Nashville and Big Four Railroad companies, alleging excessive freight rates from Cincinnati and other points west to North Carolina points, as compared with rates to Virginia "gateway cities," will be heard in Washington, October 22d.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, "BOOTS" BROWN.
colored, in the holding of special institutes to demonstrate dairying methods in various parts of the State. The first is billed for Henderson county, at Dana, October 26th to 30th, the instructors to be J. A. Coover, E. H. Rawl, dairy expert, United States Department of Agriculture, and Dr. Tait Butler, North Carolina State Veterinarian. Notice comes from the Interstate Commerce Commission that the North Carolina Corporation Commission has the argument in the suit of the North Carolina commission against the Norfolk and Western, Louisville and Nashville and Big Four Railroad companies, alleging excessive freight rates from Cincinnati and other points west to North Carolina points, as compared with rates to Virginia "gateway cities," will be heard in Washington, October 22d.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, "BOOTS" BROWN.
colored, in the holding of special institutes to demonstrate dairying methods in various parts of the State. The first is billed for Henderson county, at Dana, October 26th to 30th, the instructors to be J. A. Coover, E. H. Rawl, dairy expert, United States Department of Agriculture, and Dr. Tait Butler, North Carolina State Veterinarian. Notice comes from the Interstate Commerce Commission that the North Carolina Corporation Commission has the argument in the suit of the North Carolina commission against the Norfolk and Western, Louisville and Nashville and Big Four Railroad companies, alleging excessive freight rates from Cincinnati and other points west to North Carolina points, as compared with rates to Virginia "gateway cities," will be heard in Washington, October 22d.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, "BOOTS" BROWN.
colored, in the holding of special institutes to demonstrate dairying methods in various parts of the State. The first is billed for Henderson county, at Dana, October 26th to 30th, the instructors to be J. A. Coover, E. H. Rawl, dairy expert, United States Department of Agriculture, and Dr. Tait Butler, North Carolina State Veterinarian. Notice comes from the Interstate Commerce Commission that the North Carolina Corporation Commission has the argument in the suit of the North Carolina commission against the Norfolk and Western, Louisville and Nashville and Big Four Railroad companies, alleging excessive freight rates from Cincinnati and other points west to North Carolina points, as compared with rates to Virginia "gateway cities," will be heard in Washington, October 22d.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, "BOOTS" BROWN.
colored, in the holding of special institutes to demonstrate dairying methods in various parts of the State. The first is billed for Henderson county, at Dana, October 26th to 30th, the instructors to be J. A. Coover, E. H. Rawl, dairy expert, United States Department of Agriculture, and Dr. Tait Butler, North Carolina State Veterinarian. Notice comes from the Interstate Commerce Commission that the North Carolina Corporation Commission has the argument in the suit of the North Carolina commission against the Norfolk and Western, Louisville and Nashville and Big Four Railroad companies, alleging excessive freight rates from Cincinnati and other points west to North Carolina points, as compared with rates to Virginia "gateway cities," will be heard in Washington, October 22d.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, "BOOTS" BROWN.
colored, in the holding of special institutes to demonstrate dairying methods in various parts of the State. The first is billed for Henderson county, at Dana, October 26th to 30th, the instructors to be J. A. Coover, E. H. Rawl, dairy expert, United States Department of Agriculture, and Dr. Tait Butler, North Carolina State Veterinarian. Notice comes from the Interstate Commerce Commission that the North Carolina Corporation Commission has the argument in the suit of the North Carolina commission against the Norfolk and Western, Louisville and Nashville and Big Four Railroad companies, alleging excessive freight rates from Cincinnati and other points west to North Carolina points, as compared with rates to Virginia "gateway cities," will be heard in Washington, October 22d.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, "BOOTS" BROWN.
colored, in the holding of special institutes to demonstrate dairying methods in various parts of the State. The first is billed for Henderson county, at Dana, October 26th to 30th, the instructors to be J. A. Coover, E. H. Rawl, dairy expert, United States Department of Agriculture, and Dr. Tait Butler, North Carolina State Veterinarian. Notice comes from the Interstate Commerce Commission that the North Carolina Corporation Commission has the argument in the suit of the North Carolina commission against the Norfolk and Western, Louisville and Nashville and Big Four Railroad companies, alleging excessive freight rates from Cincinnati and other points west to North Carolina points, as compared with rates to Virginia "gateway cities," will be heard in Washington, October 22d.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, "BOOTS" BROWN.
colored, in the holding of special institutes to demonstrate dairying methods in various parts of the State. The first is billed for Henderson county, at Dana, October 26th to 30th, the instructors to be J. A. Coover, E. H. Rawl, dairy expert, United States Department of Agriculture, and Dr. Tait Butler, North Carolina State Veterinarian. Notice comes from the Interstate Commerce Commission that the North Carolina Corporation Commission has the argument in the suit of the North Carolina commission against the Norfolk and Western, Louisville and Nashville and Big Four Railroad companies, alleging excessive freight rates from Cincinnati and other points west to North Carolina points, as compared with rates to Virginia "gateway cities," will be heard in Washington, October 22d.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, "BOOTS" BROWN.
colored, in the holding of special institutes to demonstrate dairying methods in various parts of the State. The first is billed for Henderson county, at Dana, October 26th to 30th, the instructors to be J. A. Coover, E. H. Rawl, dairy expert, United States Department of Agriculture, and Dr. Tait Butler, North Carolina State Veterinarian. Notice comes from the Interstate Commerce Commission that the North Carolina Corporation Commission has the argument in the suit of the North Carolina commission against the Norfolk and Western, Louisville and Nashville and Big Four Railroad companies, alleging excessive freight rates from Cincinnati and other points west to North Carolina points, as compared with rates to Virginia "gateway cities," will be heard in Washington, October 22d.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, "BOOTS" BROWN.
colored, in the holding of special institutes to demonstrate dairying methods in various parts of the State. The first is billed for Henderson county, at Dana, October 26th to 30th, the instructors to be J. A. Coover, E. H. Rawl, dairy expert, United States Department of Agriculture, and Dr. Tait Butler, North Carolina State Veterinarian. Notice comes from the Interstate Commerce Commission that the North Carolina Corporation Commission has the argument in the suit of the North Carolina commission against the Norfolk and Western, Louisville and Nashville and Big Four Railroad companies, alleging excessive freight rates from Cincinnati and other points west to North Carolina points, as compared with rates to Virginia "gateway cities," will be heard in Washington, October 22d.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, "BOOTS" BROWN.
colored, in the holding of special institutes to demonstrate dairying methods in various parts of the State. The first is billed for Henderson county, at Dana, October 26th to 30th, the instructors to be J. A. Coover, E. H. Rawl, dairy expert, United States Department of Agriculture, and Dr. Tait Butler, North Carolina State Veterinarian. Notice comes from the Interstate Commerce Commission that the North Carolina Corporation Commission has the argument in the suit of the North Carolina commission against the Norfolk and Western, Louisville and Nashville and Big Four Railroad companies, alleging excessive freight rates from Cincinnati and other points west to North Carolina points, as compared with rates to Virginia "gateway cities," will be heard in Washington, October 22d.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, "BOOTS" BROWN.
colored, in the holding of special institutes to demonstrate dairying methods in various parts of the State. The first is billed for Henderson county, at Dana, October 26th to 30th, the instructors to be J. A. Coover, E. H. Rawl, dairy expert, United States Department of Agriculture, and Dr. Tait Butler, North Carolina State Veterinarian. Notice comes from the Interstate Commerce Commission that the North Carolina Corporation Commission has the argument in the suit of the North Carolina commission against the Norfolk and Western, Louisville and Nashville and Big Four Railroad companies, alleging excessive freight rates from Cincinnati and other points west to North Carolina points, as compared with rates to Virginia "gateway cities," will be heard in Washington, October 22d.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, "BOOTS" BROWN.
colored, in the holding of special institutes to demonstrate dairying methods in various parts of the State. The first is billed for Henderson county, at Dana, October 26th to 30th, the instructors to be J. A. Coover, E. H. Rawl, dairy expert, United States Department of Agriculture, and Dr. Tait Butler, North Carolina State Veterinarian. Notice comes from the Interstate Commerce Commission that the North Carolina Corporation Commission has the argument in the suit of the North Carolina commission against the Norfolk and Western, Louisville and Nashville and Big Four Railroad companies, alleging excessive freight rates from Cincinnati and other points west to North Carolina points, as compared with rates to Virginia "gateway cities," will be heard in Washington, October 22d.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, "BOOTS" BROWN.
colored, in the holding of special institutes to demonstrate dairying methods in various parts of the State. The first is billed for Henderson county, at Dana, October 26th to 30th, the instructors to be J. A. Coover, E. H. Rawl, dairy expert, United States Department of Agriculture, and Dr. Tait Butler, North Carolina State Veterinarian. Notice comes from the Interstate Commerce Commission that the North Carolina Corporation Commission has the argument in the suit of the North Carolina commission against the Norfolk and Western, Louisville and Nashville and Big Four Railroad companies, alleging excessive freight rates from Cincinnati and other points west to North Carolina points, as compared with rates to Virginia "gateway cities," will be heard in Washington, October 22d.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, "BOOTS" BROWN.
colored, in the holding of special institutes to demonstrate dairying methods in various parts of the State. The first is billed for Henderson county, at Dana, October 26th to 30th, the instructors to be J. A. Coover, E. H. Rawl, dairy expert, United States Department of Agriculture, and Dr. Tait Butler, North Carolina State Veterinarian. Notice comes from the Interstate Commerce Commission that the North Carolina Corporation Commission has the argument in the suit of the North Carolina commission against the Norfolk and Western, Louisville and Nashville and Big Four Railroad companies, alleging excessive freight rates from Cincinnati and other points west to North Carolina points, as compared with rates to Virginia "gateway cities," will be heard in Washington, October 22d.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, "BOOTS" BROWN.
colored, in the holding of special institutes to demonstrate dairying methods in various parts of the State. The first is billed for Henderson county, at Dana, October 2